We, at Prudential Prime Properties, have held our yearly management meetings at The Captain Lord Mansion for over thirteen years. Without question, the accommodations, ambiance, and total dedication of the entire staff to every detail of our process help make everyone comfortable and is the reason that we have returned every year. At the close of each meeting, I always ask participants how their stay went for them. The results are always outstandingly positive: it is this total satisfaction that makes us all big fans of the inn; they do a fantastic job.
