The award winning Empress of Little Rock is a nine room luxurious boutique hotel considered the most significant Victorian building in Little Rock's impressive Quapaw Quarter Historic District. We offer all the business conveniences needed for your retreat, including free property-wide, secure Wi-Fi, copy and fax services and catered on-site meals. Room amenities at The Empress include individual private baths (many with Jacuzzi tubs and hydrotherapy massage showers with steam and aromatherapy, complimentary wine hour, three comfortable public parlors and a convenient location in Little Rock, recently recognized by the AAA publication Southern Traveler Magazine as one of the top three "Best Large Cities for a Weekend." With art centers, museums, fine-dining restaurants, shopping centers and outdoor activities (hiking, biking, golfing and fishing), including the largest urban hiking/biking trails, the River Trail and the Big Dam Bridge it is no wonder that Little Rock is considered a top travel destination in the south.
