Situated just four miles from Williamsburg, Wedmore Place is a European-style country hotel decorated with antiques and paintings from numerous countries, all selected to provide the luxurious feeling of warmth and elegance of an “Old World” style mansion, as well as the luxuries and amenities appreciated by sophisticated travelers.

Wedmore Place is situated on the grounds of Wessex Hundred, a three-hundred acre farm bordering College Creek, near the James River. Wessex Hundred is also home to the Williamsburg Winery, rated as one of the best wine producers in the world by Decanter Magazine of London. The hotel and winery are located within “America’s Historic Triangle” comprising “Jamestowne” Island, Colonial Williamsburg, and Yorktown, all rooted deeply in American history and woven in the fabric of the country’s birth and liberty.
